ST. LOUIS HORSES' GREAT DAY.

Joekey W. Hicks and His Employers, Hatfield & Ownby, Suspended by Stewards - Scorpio the Only Winning Favorite.

New Orleans, La., Dec. 15.—Jockey W., Hicks, the eleverest apprentice rider here, succeeded in getting beaten on four favorites to-day, and, as a result, became the object of judicial censure. Pending investigation, both the boy and his employers, Hatfield and Ownby, have been suspended. Hatfield and Gwnby, have been suspended.
Hatfield and Gwnby own Moabina, one of the favorites that W. Hicks piloted to defent. They also own the filly Auric B., which was heavily backed and finished in the ruck.

St. Louis horses won every race on the card Tuesday. The only winning favorite was Scorpio. There was a stiff post play on Joe Lesser, winner of the sixth event, who was backel from tens to sixes. The other four winners all went to the post at long odds. Flora Lessy breezed home in the first, and Aline S. won the second in the same fashion. Butch Carter had to be fusible along to beat Miss Shanley in the third. Welcome Light won the fourth, ridden out. Scorpio had no trouble besting Golden Rule in the fifth, and Jee Lesser made his field look chem in the sixth.

Charley Thorpe, one of the best of the small army of American jockeys, who, for several scasons past, has ridden in Austria and Humary, stopped off for a few hours yesterday on his way through the city to his heme in California.

Thorpe reached New York Saturday in company with Eddle Jones, Charley Gray and Righy, the two latter having ridden in France with great success.

Thorpe had eighty-seven winning mounts during the season. Righy won sixty-seven races, notwithstanding a suspension which kept him out of the saddle for several weeks.

Thorps praises the Austrians and Hungarians and their treatment of the American hoys.

"We all did well over there, and the racing flourished. A native Hungarian who rides with the short stirrup and reins led the jockeys for the season, with ninety-nine victories to his credit. Fred Taral was second, with sixty-eight winners; Russell, a Callfornia boy, was third, with forty-four, and Grey ranked fourth, with forty-three firsts."

"Charley Van Dusen was right at his firste."

"Charley Van Dusen was right at his heels with thirty-nine, and Van would have done much better, but was set down for fouring, which. I think, was purely accidental.

"This kept Charley on the ground for a long time, and he was riding in such good form at the time of his suspension that had he not been put down he would have had a good chance for first place."

Springer will have second call on my services, and for this I will receive $2.500.

"This brings my satury up to $1.500, and, in addition, I will be paid $25 for winning and $12 for the property of the property of the paid $25 for winning and $25 for the paid $25 and $22 for winning and $25 for winning and $25 for winning and $25 for fees.

"My record for forty-three winners for the season is comparatively poor, but pretty good. I think when it is taken into consideration that up to the latter part of August I had only four winning mounts.

"We had a big stable, but the horses all took sick early in the year, most of them with catarrhal fever. This left me with little to do but to help look after them until they fully recovered, and when they rounded to It gave me a chance to ride as many winners toward the end as any one. We had twenty-three horses on the sick list at one time.

winners toward the end as any one. We had twenty-three horses on the sick list at one time.

"There are many really good horses in Austria and Hungary, the best of which I think is Llubar, a stake animal of the highest type. This fellow can pick up 150 or 150 pounds and carry his burden home ahead of any other horse in the country.

"They have some crack sprinters, too. Taral rode a big brown horse which he said is as great as Domino was in his paimy days. Fred used to ride the latter in America, so he ought to know.

"Another good one was Passe Partout. Not the old jumper that used to make things hum over the sticks at Harlem and Hawtherne, but another of the same name. He could break last and then run away from his fields in the dashes. Nero was his only conqueror in the shorter races.

"Jimmy Dyer, an American, was the best trainer in Austria and Hungary, and the foreigners wonder at his success." Captain Reimer, a retired cavalry officer, is the best starter over there, and I think he is as good as Dick Dwyer or Jake Holtman. They use the barrier the same as they do in America.

"The stewards are very strict, but equally fair, and none of us came to grief."

When asked what chance he thought "The stewards are very strict, but equally fair, and none of us come to grief."
When asked what chance he thought Johnny Relff and Milton Henry had to win their suits in France, Gray had this to say:
"Johnny Relff sued two French journals for libel, and it is the prevailing opinion in Parls, where he stopped three days, that Relff will win his suits.
"Henry however, is doomed, and from what we could learn I believe Milt has no chance."

It is said that Pat Dunne, on whose horse Woods rode the race that got him in trouble, is one of many horsemen who signed Woods's application for reinstatement.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Philadelphia, Dec. 16.—While too early to say much as yet, it is reported on good authority that a strong effort will be made at Harrisburg this winter toward legi-lation permitting of private betting on our State race tracks.

The great boom in metropolitan racing gircles of the Empire State and the remembraces of former racing days in this city and at Pittaburg have caused renewed discussion of the situation among lovers of the story with a view toward legiciative relief.

The formation of a Penasylvania jockey cinb, with such men as A. J. Casast, S. S. Brown, P. A. B. Widner, J. E. Wodner, E. T. Stolesbury, B. F. Clyde and others at the helm, has long been a public hope in this and other cities, and with proper effort at Harristoury a bill framed on the lines of the Fe cy-ray law could framed on the lines of the Fe cy-ray law could into the healt and the measure naturally died of manification.

Back in the sixties and seventia racing was very popular in Pennsylvania. The Suffolk Park and Foint Breeze tracks here and the Pattabus tracks were the archas where some of the best horses of that day measured strides.

Nebraska's Football Captain. Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 18 - John S. Render, for two years half back of the University of Ne-braska football te-m, has been elected captain for the season of 1962.

BILLIARDS.

PETERSON OPEN TO ALL COMERS. Young North Dakota Billiard Expert

In the City.

Charley Petersen, the young North Dakota billard expert and balk-line champion of the Northwest, is in St. Louis and is willing to play any of the local experts at 14 inch balk line. Several matches are in prospect. At Fargo, N. D. Peterson recently defeated Hatley and Spears for the 14-inch balk line championship of the Northwest. His opponents are players of recognized ability, but Peterson won from both with a grand average of 15 and a high single newrane of 22°. Peterson is practicing daily at Hauser's.

The first 50 points of the E0-point three-cushion bill and match between Eddle Mack, the "Cinclinaati Kid," and Charles T. Noland, will be played to-night at the Hauser. The match is arousing much interest as Noland, though in good amateur standing, is recognized as the equal of many professionals in the West, while Mack is one of the cleverest professionals in St. Louis, both at billiards and pool. Play will begin at 8 o'clock. in the City.

BROWN WINS DOUBLE-HEADER. Defeats Wheels and Hook in Handicap Tournament.

CAP TOURBUMENT.

Doctor Brown got away with two games last night at the Grand in the handcap three-cushion tournament, playing a double-header with Wheeler and Hook to make up for his late start in the tournament. That his game has greatly improved since last year was apparent from the strength of Doctor Brown's play last night. He made an average of 40 in each game.

The "talent" was rather surprised to see Wheeler lose, as he has led in the turnament since it was started a month ago. Up to last night he had not lost a game. Hook was expected to uncork something in the way of a high run or average, as he has played sensational billiards in this tournament, but he did not make so good a showing as Wheeler. Charley Keont referred both games. Clark and Cornell will play to-night. Last night's scores:
